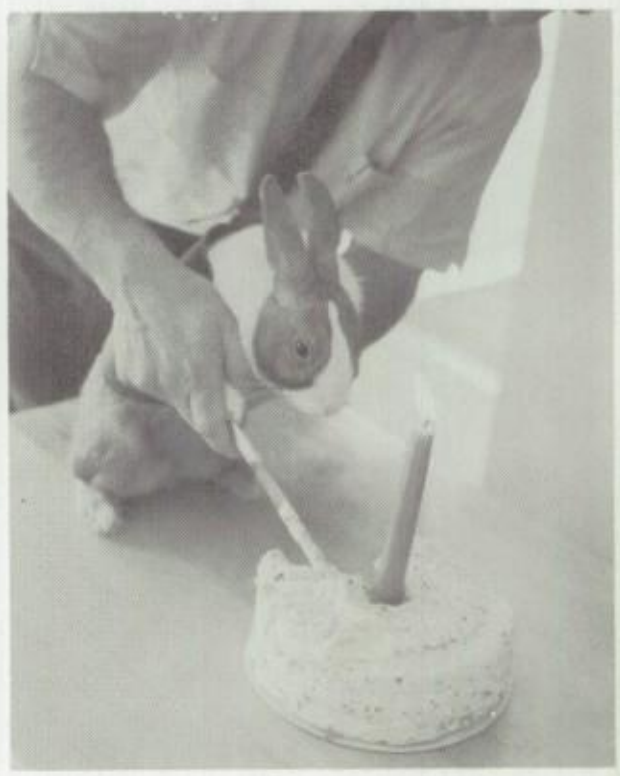
WINTER GRADUATION MARKS A TURNING POINT . . .



SPRING AND A NEW SEMESTER UNFOLD. . . . . .

AS WE RECALL THE EXCITEMENT OF THE YEAR . . .

AND CAN WE EVER FORGET THAT DAY IN NOVEMBE

If you keep faith with me you need not weep if I am killed—for I will not complain of any death, if by it others gain the things I think are worth my life to keep:
the right to have, to know, to love, to speak.
If all win these I will endure my pain.
But if, when peace returns to you once more,
you break the word you gave humanity by keeping not the pledge to which you swore—then carve in stone this epitaph for me:
Here lies a fool who placed his hope in war
And gave his faith to insincerity.

Is a real nice and
sweet young lady.
The Best of Luck and success at Washington. It has really been a pleasure working and having gym with
you. Have lots of fun this summer stay as sweet as you are and you will go along ways in life. I hope to be seeing around the campus next semester.
